THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted from Antigua, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Joſeph Addiſon, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the chief Governour of his Majeſty's Leeward Charibbee Iſlands, the Lieutenant Governour, Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Antigua, met at the Town of St. John's on the 29th Day of March, 1717.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Adrianople, March 26. The Marqueſs de Bonnac, Ambaſſadour of France, arrived here from Conſtantinople about the Middle of January, and kept incognito ſome Days before he made his publick Entry. On the Day appointed for that Entry, he went to a Fountain half a League from hence, where two of the chief Officers of the Court attended with ſome of the Grand Seignior's Horſes. The Ambaſſadour mounted on one very richly accoutred, and his Retinue were furniſhed with others. He marched between the Chaouz Baſhaw and the Selictar Aga, preceeded by a Company of Janiſaries led by their Officers; another Company of Janiſaries, with ſeveral Agas, marched on each Side of him, and his Led Horſes and Equipage followed. A few Days after, he had Audience of the Grand Vizier, being received with the uſual Ceremonies; and is ſhortly to have Audience of the Grand Signior. The Captain Baſhaw, or Admiral, Janum Codja, has been put to Death, being charged with not doing his Duty in the Attack of Corfu laſt Summer. Troops are drawing hither from all Parts, and are to proceed to Hungary aſſoon as the Marching-Orders are ſignified by the ſetting up the Horſe-Tails.

Venice, May 21. Letters from Rome of the 15th Inſtant adviſe, that Don Carlo Albani being returned from Peſaro, Cardinal Gualtieri was ordered by the Pope to go thither. That on the 8th Inſtant died the Prince of Borgheſe in the 80th Year of his Age; and a few Days after his Son cauſed the Arms of France to be taken down from over his Gate, and thoſe of the Emperour to be put up. Several Perſons of Quality are gone from hence to partake of the Diverſions of the Fair of Reggio. Laſt Week a Convoy with Recruits ſailed from the Lido, and another is to put to Sea within two Days, for Corfu; from whence we have an Account, that the Fleet of Men of War of this Republick is ſailed towards the Archipelago, under the Command of Sig. Flangini; but the Captain-General with the Gallies remained at Corfu.

Vienna, May 26. The Letters from Peterwaradin of the 18th Inſtant ſay, that moſt of the General Officers were actually arrived at the Camp near Futack, and that Prince Eugene was expected there every Day, ſo that it is probable we ſhall ſoon hear of the Imperial Army's being in Motion. They write from Tranſilvania, that the Bulk of the Turkiſh Army is ſtill near Adrianople, where they wait for their Artillery and Troops out of Aſia before they will come forwards. The Princes of Bavaria had their Audiences of the Imperial Family on the 22d Inſtant; that of the Electoral Prince Charles was a publick one, but Prince Ferdinand's private. The Emperour received the former at his Cloſet Door, and made him ſit down, as did likewiſe the Empreſſes and Archdutcheſſes. He is ſerved and treated by his Imperial Majeſty's Officers. The Troops they brought with them conſiſt of three Regiments of Foot, and one of Dragoons, and make 6000 Men; they are paid by the Elector, and commanded by Count Maffé, one of his Lieutenant Generals, an Italian by Birth. On the 22d the Prince of Portugal ſet out for the Army, and was followed the 23d by the Duke of Aremberg, and the Prince of Dombes.

Liſbon, May 28. Yeſterday was the great Proceſſion of Corpus Chriſti from the Patriarchal Palace to the Cathedral: What appeared moſt remarkable in it was, that the Canons
